History of the Institution	'Maharshi Valmiki College of Education' was established in the year 1995 as a Constituent College of University of Delhi, fully funded by Govt. of NCT of Delhi, for providing avenues for pre-service teacher education programmes to the aspiring students in Delhi. Initially known as 'College of Education' and housed on the Ground Floor of Bhai Parmanand Institute of Business Studies Building, Shakarpur, Delhi, the College assumed its present name Maharshi Valmiki College of Education in the year 1996, and moved to its present location at Geeta Colony in the year 2003. The College created and adopted its logo in the year 1999.
Vision Statement	To strive for excellence in teacher education and to prepare quality teachers, educational practitioners and researchers.
Mission and Objectives	To prepare academically reflective, culturally sensitive, socially responsive, pedagogically sound and technology-savvy teachers. To produce intellectually sound, inquisitive, value-oriented and technically skilled educational practitioners and researchers. To pursue conceptual, field-oriented and need based studies in teacher education.

Significant Achievements and Contributions in the field of Education, such as Awards/Recognition, Eminent Alumni etc.

Significant Achievements, if any	NAAC Accredited 'A' Grade Institution [CGPA 3.15 on a four point scale]
Contributions in the field of Education	During the twenty-one academic sessions of its coming into being, the College has seriously been focusing on instilling quality and bringing diversity in the scope of its teacher education programme. Beyond the mandatory requirements, the College dedicates itself to the mission of transforming students into teachers who are geared to the pursuit of academic excellence, being vibrant on cultural sensitivity and oriented to social affinity. With many pass-outs of the College contributing their bit in the school and university systems across the length and breadth of the Country and many others channelising themselves in diverse domains, the College has set itself into an exploratory journey in teacher education with the intent of blending the much cherished ideals with the hopes and aspirations of the emerging global world.
