Celebration of Rashtriya Ekta Divas or National Unity Day (2019-20)

Maharshi Valmiki College of Education, University of Delhi celebrated 31st October, 2019 as the Rashtriya Ekta Divas or National Unity Day in the College Assembly hall.

The Morning assembly was organised in our College in which the themes of national unity, integrity and Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel were meaningfully addressed by the students and the faculty members . It was stressed that there is a need to raise collective consciousness about the relationship between integrity, diversity and humanity among the people at local, national and global levels. Many pedagogic ways were suggested which can be made functional at school and university levels in order to bring harmony and integrity among citizens of our country. The students shared their critical reflections on the meaning of unity in diversity, cultural exchange and integrity in contemporary Indian context.

A Pledge taking ceremony was organised to mark the occasion. The students along with their faculty members showed great fervour in the whole process of organising various activities under the purview of Rashtriya Ekta Divas.

The celebration of “Rashtriya Ekta Divas” concluded with a mass singing of the National Anthem in our College assembly hall.
